Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Maryland, 1887 It affords me great satisfaction to state that at the session of the last Legislature these facts and views were urged upon the Committees on Ways and Means and on Militia, by officers representing the various commands, resulting in a recommendation of a liberal and generous appropriation, which met with the hearty approval of both houses and the Executive. At the same time it was earnestly urged that, in place of the old militia law which did not meet the requirements of the service, other important amendments, as suggested, should be enacted. In this view, also, the Legislature concurred, and the law, consequently, as it now stands is all that is desired. It is therein provided, amongst other things, that officers and men shall be sworn into the service of the State for a term of three years, and that there shall be held a biennial encampment for instruction and discipline. The total force of the State, as limited by law, consists of thirty-eight companies, organized into one brigade of regiments, battalions and independent companies, as follows: Fifth Regiment Infantry - 10 companies, Col. Chas. D. Gaither, stationed in Baltimore city. First Regiment Infantry - 9 companies, Col. H. Kyd Douglas, stationed in Baltimore City; one. Waverly, Baltimore County; one. Catonsville, Baltimore County; one. Towson, Baltimore County; one. Annapolis, Anne Arundel County; one. Hagerstown, Washington County; one. Unionville and Frederick City, Frederick County; one each. Williamsport, Washington County; one. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important...
