Lambs of the fold, who wander lost, The children of the parish poor, On the world s waves in tempest tost!--Who shall preserve you whole and pure? How, mid the Town s unholy ways, Shall ye be kept, be fed, be taught? How train d to Christ, to prayer and praise, Unless to School devoutly brought? Let, then, the little children come, And, being led, lead us to Heaven. Can we of mercies count the sum? Prove that not all in vain is given. Let rich men s gold be largely poured, The poor man s mite augment the treasure; Build up our Schools with one accord, Nor fill with stinting hand the measure. S. PETER S SCHOOLS, NORTHAMPTON. Man of the...
