I am your true friend, and you may write to ask my advice at any time. This girl is now married to a man in good business. Dear M. A., --A. H. was delighted with your necktie and your thinking of her. She looks so very nice in all her new clothes. I have every hope she will do well. I was very pleased to see you when I called so unexpectedly, and to find you looking so well and happy; but there was one little thing I was disappointed in, and that was--can you guess? Why, you had no cap on; such a pity, I assure you, if you want to look nice. Wear caps; a pretty cap sets a servant off, and not wearing caps does not make you a lady. Dear girl, never mind what the other servants do around you; you must look respectable whether they do or not. Another thing, I observed the hooks of your dress were out; I should think you might find time to let out your dresses if they are tight. I am so sorry you do not get to church every Sunday at least once. I hope that you do not forget whose day it is, not yours, but God s. Thou God seest me. Dear girl, you are very precious to me, so do think about your soul now whilst you are young, and do not get into...
