Harrison Chamberlain, president of the Society, presided and made the following address, after which he read Hon. Diedrich Willers historical sketch of the formation of the county: Address By Harrison Chamberlain. To build up a commonwealth is a noble endeavor. To lay the foundations deep and strong, so joining communities and counties together that the structure will be harmonious and serve the public good is a task so patriotic, wise and grand that it confers on all taking a part in it an imperishable glory. The formation of Seneca county was in line of State-building, of readjusting conditions the better to meet the needs of an increasing population. And how well this adjustment was made is evidenced by the fact that we are assembled here to-day to...
