Airborne (Paperback)

By Neil Williams

Airplan Flight Equipment Ltd, United Kingdom, 2012.
 Paperback. Book Condition: New. 232 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Flying stories have held a fascination from time immemorial, from the legend of Icarus to the jet age. This is a book of flying stories, but with a difference. All of these stories are true, covering the experiences of the author as a test, demonstration, airshow, film, jet charter, and competition aerobatic pilot. The stories include aircraft from the early flying machines to modern military and civil jets. Here you will read of the exultation of a first solo in a Spitfire, the desolation of being lost over the Indian ocean at night, short of fuel in a jet bomber, the sickening fear of hurtling earthwards out of control, the humor of receiving a parking ticket after a forced landing, the shattering experience of crashing an airplane in front of a crowd of 80,000 people, and the unbelievable story of how the author crash landed an airplane after a wing folded in flight, which gained him the Queen s Commendation for Valuable Service in the Air. A wide and exciting variety of aircraft are covered including the Mosquito, Sopwith...
