The establishment and supervision of these schools is included in the scope of work of the Vocational Division. TRADE AND INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION During the past biennium a goodly number of new classes have been added in school districts already maintaining vocational industrial education programs and other centers have started new programs in this field. New vocational industrial programs were, started in the following districts: Aliquippa, Beaver County Cheltenham Township Montgomery County Pottstown, Montgomery County Phoenixville, Chester County Hanover, York County Pottsville, Schuylkill County Trevorton, Northumberland County. Republic, Fayette County Latrobe, Westmoreland County The majority of these districts organized the larger portion of their vocational industrial programs on the part-time cooperative plan whereby the boys spend two weeks in school and two weeks in industry. At the present time, the Pittsburgh Board of Education is building a large central trade school for boys which will accommodate approximately 1600 pupils. Plans are in progress for another trade school in the colored section of the city. Provision is being made to provide trade facilities for over 3,000 pupils in the Pittsburgh district. A new trade school for girls, started two years ago, has also been organized. Philadelphia has adopted the plan of combining the voluntary and required attendance in their trade schools. This city has recently built a large girls trade school costing considerably over $1,000,000. At the present time the Jules Mastbaum Trade School is being erected which will also house both the continuation school and...
