The Reeducation of Cherry Truong

By Aimee Phan

Picador USA. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 368 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.6in. x 1.1in. The Reeducation of Cherry Truong transcends ethnicity and culture and dives headlong into the plight of being human. Aimee Phan's prose is beautifully intricate yet powerful in what it reveals and exposes. ---Jennie Shortridge, author of Eating Heaven Cherry Truong's parents have exiled her wayward older brother from their Southern California home, sending him to Vietnam to live with distant relatives. Determined to bring him back, twenty-one-year-old Cherry travels to her family's native country and finds herself on a journey to uncover decades-old secrets---hidden loves, desperate choices, and lives ripped apart by the march of war and the currents of history. The Reeducation of Cherry Truong is the sweeping story of two spirited and unforgettable families---the Truongs and the Vos---and their yearning for reconciliation, redemption, and a place to call home. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
