OCLC Number: (OCoLC)182747603 Excerpt: . . . and activities are at risk of erroneous payments and put in place a corrective action plan to reduce erroneous payments. Reduction targets - Targets are necessary for future improper payment levels and a timeline within which the targets will be reached. Accountability - Ensure that their managers and accountable officers (including the agency head) are held accountable for reducing improper payments. Agencies shall assess whether they have the information systems and other infrastructure needed to reduce improper payments to minimal cost-effective levels, and identify any statutory or regulatory barriers that may limit agencies corrective actions in reducing improper payments. OMB has also established Eliminating Improper Payments as a program-specific initiative under the Presidents Management Agenda (PMA). This separate PMA program initiative began in the first quarter of fiscal year 2005. Previously, agency efforts related to improper payments were tracked along with other financial management activities as part of the Improving Financial Performance initiative of the PMA. The objective of establishing a separate initiative for improper payments was to ensure that agency managers are held accountable for meeting the goals of IPIA and are therefore dedicating the necessary attention and resources to meeting IPIA requirements. This program initiative establishes an accountability framework for ensuring that federal agencies initiate all necessary financial management improvements for addressing this significant and widespread problem. Specifically, agencies are to measure their improper payments annually, develop improvement targets and corrective actions, and track the results annually to ensure the corrective actions are effective. While DHS has taken actions over the last 3 fiscal years to implement IPIA DHS Has Made Some requirements, much more work needs to be done. In each of...
