RESEARCH-BASED RESOURCES TO TEACH CHEMISTRY

Book Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Chem Demos, Guided Inquiry Labs, Professional Development & Teaching Strategies | The national science education standards in many countries require teachers to teach science using inquiry. But, many science teachers do not get the opportunity to learn science through inquiry and other research-based strategies. The monograph describes some research based strategies to improve chemistry teaching based on the research and development work of the author. The topics include: field-tested chemical demonstrations...
