In preparing the facts and figures which are set forth in the narrative, I have been fortunate in working upon a system of registration of pedigree unlike any form that existed before the year 1874. The plan was feasible from the fact that the Norfolk and Suffolk Polled Cattle were not being bred outside the borders of the two counties. Also that it was possible to glean evidence from men who had both seen and aided in the inter fusion of the old variety and the new; that had been skilfully evolved from the mixture of two types of cattle that had existed in Norfolk from the olden time. That the new variety has won a permanent place in the world is evidenced by the fact that while in 1874 there were only four Red Polled Cattle in America, and these imported in the previous December, the issue of the American edition of the Herd Book, which contains names, number, and pedigree of the cattle born in the year ending December 31 st, 1915, contains the register of Bulls 27083 to 28851, of Cows 40265 to 42651. At the close of the year 1889 there were 132 bulls and 276 cows. In the following three years, when American breeders had begun...
